IBM System Storage N Series for SAP

This IBM Redbook provides best practices for deploying IBM System Storage N series storage systems, in support of mySAP Business Suite solutions that run in UNIX and NFS environments that use a DB2 database. We address common storage infrastructure design, operation, and management challenges that are faced by businesses and IT personnel, deploying the latest generation of SAP solutions.

Our recommendations are general and do not refer to particular SAP applications nor to the size or scope of specific SAP implementations. We assume that you have a basic understanding of the technology and operation of IBM N series and SAP products.

This book was developed from the interaction and results obtained by the technical staff from Network Appliance, SAP, IBM DB2, and our customers.

You can download or read this mySAP Business Suite ebook from the following link.

ERP Systems Tutorial

Kania School of Management

What is SAP?

SAP is the leading Enterprise Information and Management Package worldwide. Use of this package makes it possible to track and manage, in real-time, sales, production, finance accounting and human resources in an enterprise.

What is the connection between the Kania School of Management and SAP America?

SAP America and the Kania School of Management have entered an educational alliance in which SAP provides the software and training for faculty, the Kania School provides the computer hardware and network assets. The end result of the the alliance is the integration of the use of the SAP system into business courses so that students can develop an awareness of the Enterprise Management Systems.
